

Dan and the Bee

Early Reader No. 17

Story by Jennifer Cooper-Trent
Illustrations by Anthony Mitchell

© Fantastic Phonics.
www.early-reading.com

No part of this Publication can be reproduced without a license

Page 1a

Single Syllable Words

This story explores long vowel sound 'e'. Hence we have 'me' 'bee' 'see' and a variation, 'tea'. Explain these words all have the same sound.

Phonic Decoding - Explain how 'tree', 'see' share a common Sound of '..ee'

Long Vowel : 'e' as in 'bee'

Onset Variation: 'tr' as in 'tree'

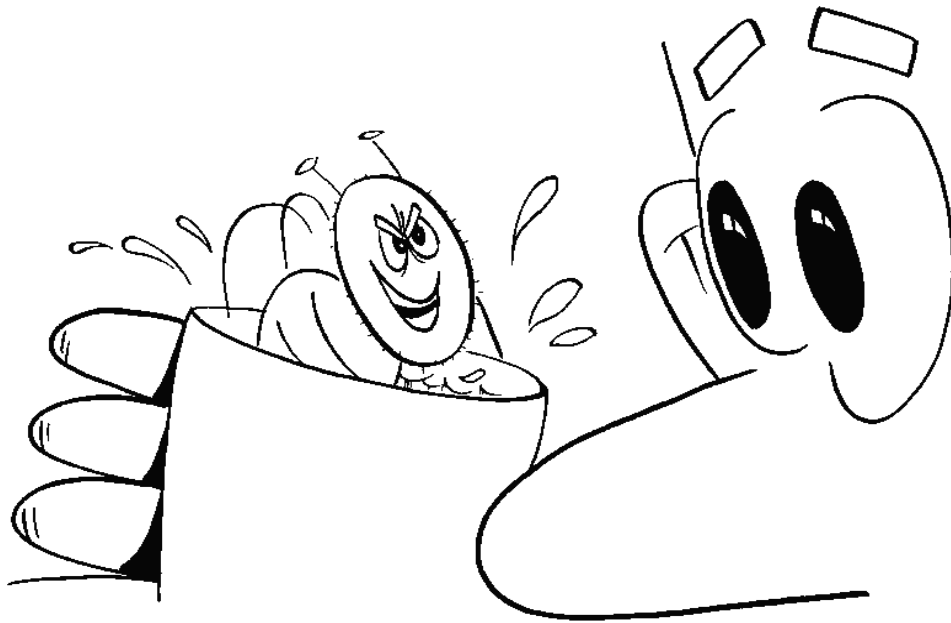

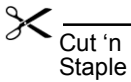

Whole Words : 'said', 'to', 'on'

Try These New Words

me bee see tree
tea buzz went said

Dan had a cup of tea.

Buzz, buzz went the bee in the tea.

Buzz, buzz to me
went the bee.

✂
Cut 'n
Staple

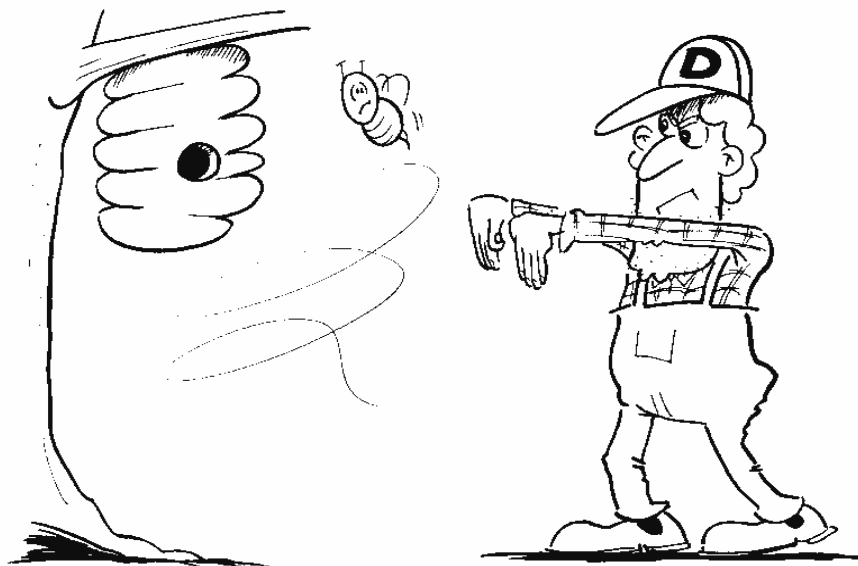

I see the bee!
I see the bee!

“Go, go!” to the bee said he.

Buzz buzz to me
went the bee.

“Go, go!” to the tree,
big bee.

Buzz, buzz to the tree went the bee.

Extra Words

free sea pea

Comprehension

1. What was Dan drinking?
2. What sound did the bee make?
3. What did Dan tell the bee to do?
4. Where did the bee go?
5. What do bees live in?

Cut 'n
Staple

Page 6a

Complete the sentences with these words.

Buzz, tea, bee, see, bee

I ___ the ___.

Buzz, ___ in the ___ went the ___.